ARTSHADES
STITCHED PAPER LAMPSHADES

NEWS RELEASE

Nov 2006

Christmas Lights in Cradley

Sarah Walker ArtShades, the contemporary lampshade maker from Malvern, will be showcasing new lamps at Blue-Ginger gallery near Cradley throughout December.

As the Christmas lights are switched on throughout the county on 1 December Sarah's lamps will be turned on in Cradley where they will illuminate the extensive array of hand-crafted gifts selected by gallery owner Sue Lim.

Sarah Walker designs and creates her distinctive lampshades by stitching and cutting designs into plant-fibre papers. A choice of hand-crafted solid wood or hand-thrown porcelain bases turn the shades into complete works of art making them the ideal present for those who appreciate British craftsmanship.

Blue-Ginger promotes the work of designer makers in the region, stocks a range of Fairtrade products and offers light lunches and teas. Throughout December it will be offering a Christmas Gift Wish List service for those who know what they would like but do not always receive it! Blue-Ginger opens Wednesday to Sunday from 10am until 5.30pm with a late-night opening on Fridays until 8pm.
